

The Blessing Is for Your Entire Family

Psalm 23 begins, “The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want” (NKJV).

I believe that one sentence best exemplifies what THE BLESSING will produce in the life of a believer.

God desires that you experience THE BLESSING to the level that you do not want for anything.

God wants you so blessed that you can't consume it all on yourself;
instead, you have to distribute it.

In other words, you are blessed to be a blessing.

This isn't an occasional occurrence, either. According to Psalm 68:19 (NKJV), the benefits of His BLESSING are something you should expect daily:

“Blessed be the Lord, who daily loads us with benefits, the God of our salvation!”

What does a benefit-filled life look like?

Psalms 112:1-3 (NKJV) says,
“Blessed is the man who fears the Lord, who delights greatly in His commandments. His descendants will be mighty on earth; the generation of the upright will be blessed. Wealth and riches will be in his house, and his righteousness endures forever.”

That's God's promise to covenant people—that THE BLESSING is for your entire family.

So, get ready! There will come a day when you and your children are blessed to the point that you can distribute THE BLESSING to other families and prevent misfortune in their lives, too.

It's time to believe God's Word and decree His BLESSING over you and your children every day, for 1 Corinthians 7:14 (MSG) says, "...they also are included in the spiritual purposes of God."

THE BLESSING is for your entire family. You are all blessed to be a blessing!
