DAY 1 – STEP INTO THE POWER REALM TO RECEIVE YOUR COVENANT PROMISES

Consider Jesus, the Author and Developer of your faith. The Father, Jesus and the Holy Spirit are all El Shaddai. They are in perfect harmony. Brother Copeland had a vision many years ago about the Holy Spirit. Step over into the power realm and keep the fundamentals of faith in mind.

STUDY IT

- I. Consider Jesus, the Author and Developer of your faith.
 - “Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross.... Consider Him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself” (Hebrews 12:1-3).
 - Consider Jesus who is the High Priest of our confession (Hebrews 6:20).
 - Consider Him financially, our Melchizedek, our Financier.
 - Consider Jesus. Consider the One who walked the shores of Galilee. Consider the One who healed the leper. Don't consider the sickness or the disease.
 - Consider the El Shaddai (The All-Sufficient One) God. Consider the One who's more than enough. Consider the Most High God. Consider Him!
- II. The Father, Jesus and the Holy Spirit are all El Shaddai. They are in perfect harmony.
 - “Believe in Me,” Jesus is saying. “I am El Shaddai in the flesh. My blood is the blood of this covenant” (John 14:10).
 - Jesus said, “If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father (El Shaddai), and he shall give you another Comforter (also El Shaddai), that he may abide with you for ever” (John 14:15-16).
 - Jesus said He will love the person who keeps His commandments, and He will manifest Himself to him for He is also El Shaddai, the Almighty God (John 14:21).
 - The Holy Spirit, also El Shaddai, is here. He came on the day of Pentecost and has not left (Acts 2:1-4). He's in you. He's on your side.

- III. Brother Copeland had a vision many years ago about the Holy Spirit.
- Brother Copeland had a yellow legal pad in front of him where he had written things he was praying about the ministry.
 - All of a sudden, in a vision, he was in a long room, and the Father came in and sat down.
 - Jesus came in and sat down on the Father's right side.
 - Through the same door came the Holy Spirit. He walked down the length of the table and sat right next to Brother Copeland.
 - The Holy Spirit took the yellow pad and said, "I'm going to get all this for you; I've been here before."
- IV. Step over into the power realm.
- The Holy Spirit is our Advocate, our Standby, our Comforter, our Strengtheners and Intercessor.
 - El Shaddai is in you, the more-than-enough God. The Creator of all things is living inside you.
 - When you've gone as far as you can go, and stretched your faith as far as you can, be God-inside minded.
 - The Holy Spirit has nine power operations waiting for you (1 Corinthians 12:7-11).
 - All it takes is God's WORD in your mouth and faith in your heart, and He's ready to help.
- V. Keep in mind the fundamentals of faith.
1. Believe it with your heart, and say it with your mouth.
 2. Faith will not work in an unbelieving heart.
 3. Abraham's BLESSING cannot be received with Thomas' faith.
 4. Faith calls things that be not as though they were.
 5. Faith demands corresponding action.
 - The most difficult fundamental is to call things that be not as though they were (Romans 4:17). That's what Abraham, the father of our faith, did.
 - If you call things like they are, things will not change.
- Consider Him; He is a covenant-keeping God.

MAKE IT PERSONAL

Pray with us to step into the power realm:

Heavenly Father, I want to step into the power realm. I realize I step in by faith. Help me to hear You and be courageous to walk in love, faith and power. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

DAY 2 – RECEIVE YOUR COVENANT PROMISES BY HAVING A WILLING HEART

Receive your covenant promises by having a willing heart. If you are willing, God can work with you. A willing heart is the key in obedience.

STUDY IT

- I. Receive your covenant promises by having a willing heart.
 - Several years ago, Brother Copeland was having financial difficulties.
 - He was believing God's WORD, "If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land" (Isaiah 1:19).
 - He heard The LORD say, You don't qualify for that promise. You have been obedient all these years, but not willing.
 - Brother Copeland had been on weekly TV on Sundays, and on radio.
 - During that time, scandals had occurred with high-profile televangelists.
 - In that unpopular climate, The LORD said, I want you to start a daily television broadcast.
 - Brother Copeland's reflex response was, "No!" His schedule was already overloaded; not because God asked him to do more, but because he kept adding meetings that God didn't ask him to preach.
 - Brother Copeland was unwilling, but he instructed the staff to get ready for daily TV broadcasts.
 - Brother Copeland obeyed The LORD's directive even though he was not willing.
 - When He realized that he had been unwilling, he quickly repented.
 - His new confession was, "I love daily television!" The emotions of joy and satisfaction came immediately.
- II. If you have a willing heart, God can work with you.
 - In ancient Judah, Amaziah, who became king, did what was right in the eyes of The LORD (2 Chronicles 25:1-2). Though he obeyed in most things, he didn't have a willing heart for it.
 - In contrast, the heart of King Asa was perfect. Though he had not obeyed thoroughly, he had a willing heart (2 Chronicles 15:16-19).
 - The LORD pointed out to Brother Copeland what had been the problem all along.

- “Because thou servedst not The LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things” (Deuteronomy 28:47).
- Upon seeing this, he made an attitude correction.
- Anything you say long enough to get in your heart will control your life.
- Willingness needs to come before obedience.

III. A willing heart is the key in obedience.

- “Jesus, though He was rich, for our sakes became poor that we, through His poverty, might become rich” (2 Corinthians 8:9).
 - Jesus was not poor in His earthly ministry.
 - He was made poor when He allowed Himself to be crucified and bear our punishment.
- “So, let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity, but with a cheerful heart” (2 Corinthians 9:7).
- “And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work” (2 Corinthians 9:8).
- God promised that you would always have all sufficiency in all things.
 - Jesus paid the price so you would have it.
- A willing heart comes before an offering.
- Say: “I’m a soldier in the army of The LORD. I’m Yours to command. Whatever You say to sow, I’ll give it.

MAKE IT PERSONAL

Make a list of areas in your life. Put a “W” beside each area as you seek to be willing and obedient. Remember to pray, ask for God’s help, and thank Him every day. Willingness comes first, then obedience becomes a joy.

DAY 3 – BECOME FULLY PERSUADED TO RECEIVE YOUR COVENANT PROMISES

To receive our covenant promises, we must be fully persuaded that God will keep His WORD. We are expected to do the works Jesus did on the earth. We must be fully, completely, absolutely persuaded about God's promises and His ways.

STUDY IT

- I. To receive our covenant promises, we must be fully persuaded that God will keep His WORD.
 - God made covenant promises to Abraham in Genesis 17.
 - The Apostle Paul references those promises in Romans 4.
 - "The covenant promise is sure to all the seed that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith" (Romans 4:16).
 - The words promise and covenant begin to take on serious and joy-filled meanings as we learn more about what God is offering (Romans 4:16-20).
 - The word seed is singular. Jesus is the seed of Abraham's faith.
- II. We are expected to do the works Jesus did on the earth.
 - Jesus taught; we are supposed to teach. He preached; we preach. He healed; we're supposed to heal.
 - We have the same spirit—El Shaddai. We have a covenant with God based on better promises (Hebrews 8:6).
 - Jesus Christ of Nazareth is your blood Brother! You have firstborn status.
 - Make this confession: "I am born again, not of corruptible seed, but incorruptible, by The WORD of God which lives and abides forever" (1 Peter 1:23).
- III. You need to be fully persuaded that what God has promised, He is able also to perform (Romans 4:21).
 - There are seven redemptive Names of God. We just call Him God, or The LORD.
 - Our Father is Almighty God. He is everything He said He is. He is Jehovah Rapha, our Shepherd; Jehovah Jireh, our Provider; Jehovah Rapha, The LORD who heals; Jehovah Tsidkenu, our Righteousness; Jehovah Shalom, our Peace; Jehovah

Shammah, He is present. He's the God who will never leave us nor forsake us (Hebrews 13:8), and Jehovah Nissi, our Covering. He's always present and around us.

- He is Jehovah, LORD Sabaoth, The LORD of hosts is His Name. The LORD Sabaoth, Jesus, is The LORD Commander of the heavenly hosts.
- The LORD has an army of angels standing ready if you'll just give Him the opportunity to fight on your behalf. He is the God of the armies of heaven!
- This is covenant talk.

IV. We must be fully, completely, absolutely persuaded about God's promises and His ways.

- "Come boldly to the throne of grace" (Hebrews 4:16).
- We sit on the right hand of Jesus on the throne of grace.
 - We've been raised up together and made to sit with Him together in the heavenlies (Ephesians 2:6).
- Jesus sits at the right hand of the Father, El Shaddai, the Almighty God, The LORD Sabaoth (Ephesians 1:20).
- We can believe and depend on the covenant-sworn oath of God to keep His promises to us.
 - "That you be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises" (Hebrews 6:12).
- Brother Copeland's mother prayed for him for over 13 years to get born again. When she cast her worries onto The LORD (1 Peter 5:7), He and Gloria both got born again just weeks later.

MAKE IT PERSONAL

Make this declaration by faith:

Father God, as an act of my will, I choose to be fully persuaded that You will do what You promised to do in my life. You promised to save me and fill me with Your Holy Spirit, and You have. You promised to heal me and prosper me, and You have. You promised to help and guide me every day of my life, and You have. I receive it all by faith in Jesus Christ. Thank You, Sir. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

DAY 4 – RECEIVE YOUR COVENANT PROMISES BY THE BLOOD OF JESUS

An oath is a covenant promise, a blood-sworn oath that is the end of the argument. Abram was met by Melchizedek, a priest of the Most High God. When you're believing God, stand and say, "I have a covenant with God." Abraham only believed The WORD of God—the covenant—not the contradiction.

STUDY IT

- I. An oath is a covenant promise, a blood-sworn oath that is the end of the argument.
 - When Jesus talked about promises, He was talking about the covenant-sworn oath of God.
 - We must be completely, absolutely and fully persuaded that what God promised, He will do.
 - The first covenant God made with Abram was sealed with the blood of animals.
 - The second covenant made between God and Jesus was sealed with the blood of Jesus Himself.
 - God confirmed His WORD by a blood-sworn oath, so we could have strong inner strength to believe (Hebrews 6:17).
- II. Abram was met by Melchizedek, a priest of the Most High God (Genesis 14:18).
 - Melchizedek brought bread and wine, which were symbols of the coming sacrifice of body and blood that Jesus would make on our behalf.
 - According to Jewish records, Melchizedek was Shem, Noah's son.
 - Our minds must be renewed to believe and depend on Jesus, our High Priest, who is a priest in the order of Melchizedek (Romans 12:2; Hebrews 7:17).
 - When we use covenant faith and are fully persuaded, we win.
 - We own the bat and ball, and our Father is the umpire. We're going to win this game! We don't play nine-inning games. We play till we win.
 - We shout for joy by faith because we have the victory.
- III. When you're believing God, stand and say, "I have a covenant with God."
 - The ancient way of cutting a Hebrew blood covenant (Genesis 15:9-15).

- First, three animals were divided in half, creating a blood walkway.
 - Next, the representatives of the covenant partners walked through the blood.
 - Finally, the covenant representatives spoke of the blessings of the covenant and the curses that would be in force if the covenant was broken.
 - When the covenant between God and Abram was cut, fire walked in the way of blood—a smoking furnace and a burning lamp. It was the glory of God!
 - That same pillar of fire by night and a pillar of cloud by day was with the children of Israel in the wilderness.
 - Brother Copeland is completely convinced that Abram saw God's footprints in that covenant walkway of blood.
- IV. When you're believing God, stand and say, "I have a covenant with God."
- The devil will try to tell you that you won't get anything. Chase the birds, the devil, out!
 - You have to stand guard over that covenant blood. God is not going to run satan off for you.
 - The Almighty God does not have authority in the earth to do anything about the devil.
 - God has already defeated the devil by the obedience of His Son who went into hell itself, took satan's keys away from him and totally defeated him.
- IV. God promised Abraham he would be the father of many nations.
- Abraham didn't believe the contradictory circumstances. He only believed The WORD of God—the covenant—not the contradiction.
 - Isaac was born when Abraham was 100 years old.
 - In all those years of waiting, Abraham didn't consider his body that was past the ability to produce children, and he didn't consider Sarah's barrenness (Romans 4:19).

MAKE IT PERSONAL

The blood of Jesus is a powerful reminder of what Jesus did for us. He presented His blood to remove our sins. Now we plead the blood of Jesus over ourselves, our loved ones and every situation in our lives. We are covered and safe from evil by the blood of Jesus.

Give thanks to God every day for the blood of Jesus that He shed for you.

DAY 5 – RECEIVE YOUR COVENANT PROMISES BY LISTENING

Faith comes by hearing The WORD of God—by listening. The people of Jericho had been afraid of the Jews for 40 years. When God tells you to do something you can't do, it's an opportunity to see the glory of God in action.

STUDY IT

- I. Faith comes by hearing The WORD of God—by listening (Romans 10:17).
 - The disciples were tired; they had had no rest. Jesus said, "Come apart and rest here in this desert place." The crowd followed them, and the disciples realized they would not have any rest (Mark 6:31-34).
 - Jesus asked Philip, "Where shall we buy bread that these may eat?" (John 6:5-13).
 - Jesus was working on something, and He already knew what He would do.
 - Philip wasn't listening.
 - Andrew found a boy who had lunch, but he didn't know how a small amount could feed so many people. He wasn't listening.
 - The faith for the miracle of Jesus' multiplying food to feed at least 5,000 was in the people who had heard The WORD. Jesus had taught all day long.
- II. The people of Jericho had been afraid of the Jews for 40 years.
 - Rahab hid the spies that Joshua sent into Jericho (Joshua 2:8-11) and told them of the fear that Jericho had when they heard that God opened the Red Sea for the Jews to pass through. Then, they heard the Israelites had defeated the Amorites.
 - The Israelites didn't realize that they were the giants, and the people of Jericho were the grasshoppers. They had to walk by faith, not by sight.
 - God kept His covenant to the Jews, and He keeps His covenant to us.
 - On the other side of God's command is a blessing of faith. God already has it worked out. He already knows what He's going to do.
- III. When God tells you to do something you can't do, it's an opportunity to see the glory of God in action. A blessing is in this for you.
 - Your answer is in the listening.
 - Brother Copeland's good friend was praying over the impossible instructions that he received from The LORD about developing a building.

- He just kept praying and listening and The LORD said, "Don't worry about it; the money to cover it all is in the floor."
- Following that instruction, they ripped up the floor and underneath was another old, bad floor.
- He kept hearing that the money was in the floor.
- It came time to rip up the next layer, and underneath it all was a wooden floor made up of such rare wood that is used to make finest furniture in the world, worth millions of dollars. The money was in the floor.
- God knows all the time what He's going to do. It's in the listening.
